Job open—for Santa

"Where art thou, Santa Claus?" mused the Illinois State Employment Service's Jim Bowman here Friday.

"A Granite City employer is seeking a part-time Santa Claus," Bowman said, "and we have special challenges with the request."

Santa must be of appropriate image, should be jolly and must own his own costume. But ISES computers which print out job orders, can't code for the words "rotund, jolly," etc., Bowman said.

Working hours for Santa will be 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays, and 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesdays.

"Pay is negotiable," Bowman said, "and the successful applicant will be someone who likes people." Job seekers who believe they qualify may call him at 451-5756—and may open the conversation with a joyful, "Ho, ho, ho."

January bids on sewers

STATE SENATOR
SAM VADALABENE

Senator on state ballot?

Plans and engineering specifications for the proposed Four Township Sanitary Sewer Program are in the hands of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and should be approved by Dec. 15, William "Bill" Sparks, chairman of the Madison County Special Sewer Committee, said Thursday.

Sparks said the committee and engineer, John J. Junia, completed the plans by the Nov. 15 deadline and submitted them to the EPA for study.

"The EPA is expected to take one month or less to approve the plans before returning them to us," Sparks said, adding, "then we can offer them to contractors and ask for bids."

The committee plans to open bids by early January and to sign a contract immediately with the lowest acceptable bidder.

"We do not expect the contractor will begin construction until all the bonds are sold, so he can be sure the money is available when we start to sell the bonds as soon as we have a contract for the work and know how much money we need," he explained.

Sparks said the committee has obtained all the information it needs from property owners in Chouteau Township. A separate sewer system under the same grant will serve Venice Township.

The committee estimated it will have to raise about $3,498,700 through issuance of revenue bonds, which will be repaid through tap-on-and-sewer user fees.

Sparks said he had obtained a copy of the bond documents he needs from property owners in Chouteau Township and will begin turning the easements in to Junia today. He said all of the bonds should be issued by the end of the week except for the ones held by the bonding company and they assured us

they thought they could sell the bonds.

"We were told the New York problem is expected to be resolved soon and the bond market should become much better by February or March," Sparks said.

His comments on the bonds were the first indications construction might be delayed because of the New York problem, he said.

"We are not expecting the contractor will begin construction until all the bonds are sold, so he can be sure the money is available when we start to sell the bonds as soon as we have a contract for the work and know how much money we need," he explained.

He said the present financial trouble is with New York City.

"We have ripped the bottom out of the bond market, but we met recently with our bonding company and they assured us

they thought they could sell the bonds.

Paracelsus, a Swiss scientist of the 16th Century was first to treat a specific ailment with selected concentrates of a known medicine, rather than the entire body of the patient.

He discovered that by applying the science of Chemistry, which then dealt with non-organic substances, to the science of organic medicine, he was able to derive extracts and tinctures of medicines, thus increasing their therapeutic value, and uniting the two sciences for all time.

Low-cost playgrounds built by youths in CETA program

Low-cost playgrounds in three areas where no play centers previously existed were constructed during the summer months by young people working in the Summer Work Experience Program, a project under the Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) administered by Coordinated Youth Services.

Construction equipment and materials were funded with a modernization grant from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development through a proposal advanced by the Madison County Housing Authority in conjunction with the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission.

Mrs. Flordinda Brown of the Coordinated Youth staff directed the summer work program for the youths.

The playgrounds were developed and completed under the supervision of R. Scott Gilliland and Neil Marsh, VISTA volunteers. They are located at the Garesche-Grenzer, Lee Wright and Venice Homes projects.

The VISTA personnel noted that many contributions were made and many youths lent their time in the development of the low-cost play centers. Various private corporations in the area donated scrap pipe, railroad ties, trees, lumber and services.

About 40 youths living in area housing projects without hope of summer jobs were given employment. Most were 16 and 17 years old, the VISTA workers said.

"Without such contributions and support the children of these projects would have had to go through even more years without adequate play facilities," Gilliland and Marsh stated in a letter to Mrs. Brown.

Gilliland said that in addition to building usable playgrounds within a strict budget figure and employing high school age youths, the program also offered an opportunity for counseling the work program participants and expanding the horizons with a big-brother type approach.

Each of these objectives was fulfilled to an acceptable degree, Gilliland said.

"Much experience was gained on our part that will be invaluable for next summer's continuation of the project," the VISTA worker said.

Legion aiding cancer war

The American Legion's "War on Cancer" was given further impetus by the contribution of its participants in the Southern Illinois organization of former officials of the American Legion — the Egyptian Post Commanders' Club — during its annual barbecue held at Marion, Ill.

According to William Banks of Granite City, junior vice-commander, 22nd district, a past commander of the Granite City Post of the American Legion.

Enrolls past age of 30, now a teacher

Ask John Prothro about how determined a woman his wife, Vernice, is when she makes up her mind.

In fact, both are determined people. Despite hard-working but poor parents, the Prothros have made a good life for themselves in their home town of Brooklyn. He is a former steelworker at Granite City plants.

They own three homes, title-free and paid for, in a row on Jefferson Street, and are substantial citizens of their community, all earned by their own efforts.

Working and saving together, the couple saved enough to invest in a home and two other adjoining houses.

Not satisfied with what they had accomplished, she began to

$1,790 burglary

Items valued at about $1,790 were stolen from the home of Dick Wilkinson, 2318 Iowa St., it was reported last week. Entry was believed gained by breaking through a previously broken rear window.

Taken were a coin collection, 25 tape recordings, a television, a combination television, radio and record player, two tape recorders, an electric guitar, a cravat, a picture projector and a tackle box containing fishing equipment.

ask herself if she was doing all she could with her talents.

She decided "no," and enrolled at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in the spring of 1969. Today, 1,300 of SIUE's 12,900 enrollment are, like Mrs. Prothro, over 30 years of age.

She graduated from Lovejoy High School in 1951. A year later, her new husband was called up by the U.S. Army and shipped off to Korea.

Her firstborn husband was opposed to the idea of going to college. But when she explained to him what it meant to her, he supported her 100 per cent, and even after he was laid off from his job at the Illinois State Casting Division in Granite City when the plant closed.

"I told him that we'd make it, and he agreed," she recalls.

He finally went to work at Granite City Steel, but the recession caused him to be laid off.

"It was a tough blow, but John insisted that I come to SIUE," she says. In June 1974 I graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in business education."

Now as teacher of business courses, type shorthand, etc., at Lovejoy High, she exudes the pleasure she has found in working with the young men and women in her classes. She displays determination, will to get a job done, and faith in her students.

"The young people today must be motivated. They want to know why they should do this or that. No longer do they accept things on blind faith.

"As adults, we should honor their independence by realizing that they aren't children any longer," she comments.

Mrs. Prothro is slightly worried about getting more parents involved in their children's activities at the high school level.

"The girls and boys not only need the formal classroom work. They need to have after-school activities, such as drama, to keep them involved in worthwhile things.

"It's here that more parents must come forward and volunteer their help," she concludes.

Police would ok change to 1 auto license plate

Most police chiefs throughout the state say they would approve a change from the present two license plate system to one plate on the rear.

Answer fire calls

Granite City firemen were called to the Archibald Milligan Corp. soybean processing plant on Cargill Road here last week, but were told the fire had been extinguished by company personnel before the city firefighters arrived.

The milligan fire trucks were returning from the soybean plant, an alarm was received from St. Elizabeth Hospital. There was no fire there, but a doctor entering operating room had seen smoke coming from a vent and pulled the fire alarm.

Firemen determined the smoke had been caused by welders in another part of the other section of the hospital and had been pulled into the operating room by fans in the heating system.

Scholars at Assumption

Fifteen Assumption seniors have been selected from 14,300 students for the 1976-77 class of Illinois State Scholars. The award program, administered by the Illinois State Scholarship Commission, selects scholars on the basis of scores on the American College Test taken in April or June of the junior year and the student's class standing at the end of six semesters.

Each student has received a Certificate of Merit and statewide recognition as a prospective college student who has demonstrated high academic potential.

Other scholars include Michael McAllanahan, Madison; Patricia Perdue, Granite City; Mark Ruesing, Madison; Bryant Snee, Granite City; and Richard Tuker, Madison.

Sixty students are to be considered for financial assistance during the 1976-77 term must submit an application to the Monetary Award Program. Under this program, the Illinois State Scholarship Commission awards grants of up to $1,500 for use toward tuition and fees at approved public or private institutions in the state.

TRUCK OVERTURNS
William Morris Jr., 27, of Marion, Okla., was injured when his tractor-trailer overturned on Highway 161 a mile east of Route 4 in St. Clair County. He went to St. Elizabeth Hospital where x-rays were taken and he was released. It was said he was driving for Lantier Distributing Co., 21 Caine Drive, Madison, when his load shifted, causing the truck to go off the road and overturn.

of a vehicle, provided it would save an expected $4 million in state costs, said J. Howlett said Tuesday evening.

The endorsement came from police chiefs who returned a three-part questionnaire sent by the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police in conjunction with the secretary of state's office.

"Police chiefs were asked if law enforcement capabilities would be hindered if a license plate is on the rear of a vehicle," Howlett said. "The majority of police departments came only on that basis which included the $4 million savings to tax payers," Howlett said.

Last September, Howlett recommended new legislation to issue multi-year plates for Illinois cars and trucks, instead of annual.

The proposal would be for a five-year plate of aluminum, renewable each year by purchase of a reflectorized decal to be affixed to the plate.

The proposal consists of evaluating the patient's life style and tailoring a program they feel will best help the person.

Future plans, according to Mrs. Nieman, are to develop an out-patient program in the evenings with a telephone follow-up with patients.

Mrs. Nieman said that she hopes to be able to begin discussions with area schools in helping persons learn to budget their time, personal finances and deal with communication problems they may have.

Many of the programs will depend on increasing the department's staff to more effectively meet the total needs of the patients, according to the director.

David Brooks, president of the club, announced that six members are needed to ring bells for the Salvation Army on Thursday, Dec. 18.

Young-Strong engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Strong, Rural Route Two, Granite City, are announcing the betrothal and approaching wedding of their daughter, Miss Mary Jane Strong, and H. Robert Young, a son of Mrs. Henry R. Young, 1912 Robin St., Venice, and the late Henry Robert Young.

The engaged couple has completed plans for a Dec. 5 wedding at the New Hope Baptist Church, Highway 3 and Jeffitt Ave., with the Rev. Bill B. Belmar to officiate.

Thanksgiving day worship at St. Peter United Church

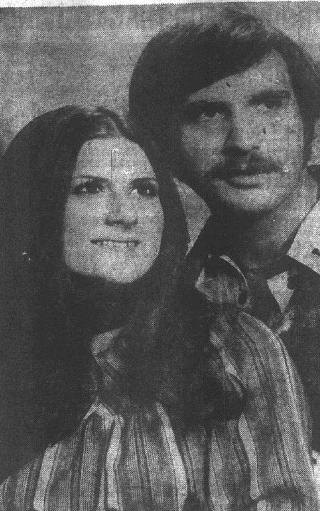

Thanksgiving Day Worship will begin at 10 a.m. at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ, 21st Street and Cleveland Boulevard.

The order of worship will be patterned after an early colonial service. "There will be singing," said the Rev. Robert Kettelhus, pastor. "The service will only be one hour and not all day, and the sermon and prayers will be much shorter."

We will include a tithing man, who will make sure no one falls asleep by carrying a large pole with a knob on one end to tap the men on the head and another with a feather on the other end to use on the ladies."

Another of the colonial features will be lighting the Psalms, a form of early American hymn singing in which the precentor sings the first line solo and the congregation repeats what they hear him sing. This custom until the Psalms were completed.

Included in the service will be special music by the Junior Choir and the newly formed "Junior High Handbell Choir" singing for the first time. Chorus and band direction of Ron Hutcherson, organist-chairmaster. The Cherub Choir under the direction of Susan Kelly also will sing!

ENGAGED. Miss Mary Jane Strong and H. Robert Young, whose engagement is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Strong, Rural Route Two, Granite City. They will be married Dec. 6 at New Hope Baptist Church.

Boy held in purse-snatching

A 14-year-old Kirkpatrick Homes boy is in custody and two other youths are sought in connection with a purse-snatching incident outside Tri-Met Bowl on Nameoki Road last week.

June Finley of the 2800 block of Wayne Avenue said she was leaving the bowling lanes and saw three boys outside the door. She said one walked toward the parking lot and saw one youth running toward her.

The youth pulled her to the ground and grabbed her purse, she reported. The three boys then got onto two bicycles and fled.

A man leaving the bowling lanes at that time got in his car, which had a citizen band radio, and noted police he was chasing the boys in the parking lots of the shopping center.

Behind Central Hardware, the boys went into a field where the man got out of his car and caught two of the boys. While he was holding them for police, one of the boys escaped.

June Finley reported her purse, which was not immediately recovered, contained $70.

Two sought

Warrants for arrest of two area youths have been issued by university police at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in connection with incidents on the SIUE campus Nov. 8.

Warrants for Bobby Coburn, 17, East St. Louis, and Jerry Branch, 17, of Alton, Illinois Youth Court, and Grafton, have been turned over to the Madison County sheriff's department.

The youths are alleged to have attempted to abduct an 11-year-old girl at the intersection of Highways 111 and 162 here. State police issued an area alert for a car, and the vehicle was seen on the campus, and investigators said fugitives attempted to steal a 1962 car on campus and ultimately did steal a 1963 auto.

The car left on campus also had been stolen, from a retail store parking lot in Collinsville.

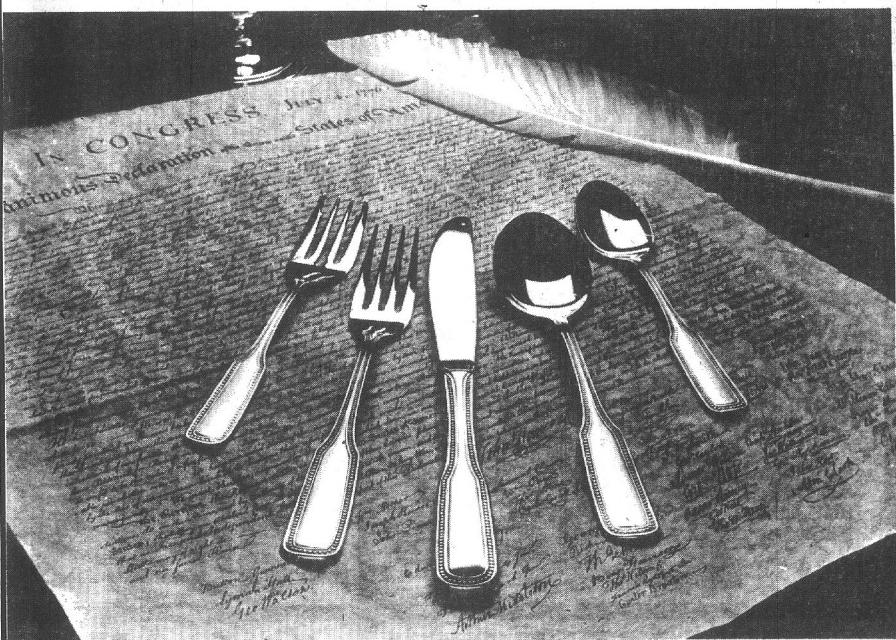

University officers have checked both with regard to theft and attempted petty theft.

Honor Warrior soccer, harrier, grid, golf teams Tuesday night

Granite City High School South will honor its 1975 football, soccer, cross-country and golf teams tomorrow with a fall athletic banquet at the school cafeteria, beginning at 6:15 p.m.

Tickets are available at the door at the time of the banquet only, at a cost of $3.25 per person.

The Warrior soccer team, coached by Gene Baker and his assistant, Mel Bunting, posted a 19-3-2 record, which included capturing South's own Illinois High School Activities Association sectional and the GCHS North sectional title to advance to the eight-team state finals at Normal.

Fifteen of South's victories were earned by starting Goalkeeper Randy Lverla, a 6-0 and 105-pound senior, was credited with the shutouts and, on the season, made 69 saves. Sophomore Robert Schaefer earned two saves on one game.

South gained a 5-0 win over Alton and a 4-1 shutout of Quigley South before bowing 2-1 to New Trier West, defending state champion.

After capturing the next two contests, 12-0 over both St. Ignatius and Collinsville, the Warriors were dealt a 4-1 blow by St. Thomas Aquinas.

They then won 12 of their next 14 games while tying two, 0-0, over Cahokia, 4-4 over Quincy High, 3-0 over Assumption, 2-0 over Park Ridge, 4-0 over Francis Parker, 4-2 over Jacksonville, 7-0 over Alton, 2-0 over Collinsville, 4-1 over Quincy High and 1-0 over Glen Ellyn.

Carrying a 16-2-2 record into sub-sectional competition, the Warriors proceeded to blank Gibault of Waterloo 6-0 and beat Assumption 4-2 to advance into sectional competition with Alvarado, Senior Ray Gonzalez, Becherer, Freshman Fred Schulz, each with two; and Juniors Mike Austin Voegele and Ken Prazman and Sophomore Jon Theis, one apiece.

The Warrior cross-country team of Richard Harmon won two dual meets this fall — 25-37 over O'Fallon and 20-41 over Collinsville.

It finished late in the season, qualifying for sectional competition by placing fourth on the three-mile course at SUEB in a district meet.

South failed to qualify for state competition, placing seventh in the Springfield sectional. The top three teams earned the right to advance to state.

Senior Frank Holmes paced the Warrior team by being the school's top finisher in every race entered.

He placed first once with a time of 15 minutes and one second on a 2.75-mile course, and posted his best time on a much more intense 16-mile course, finishing third. He was third in three meets. Holmes was second twice and finished well in other events.

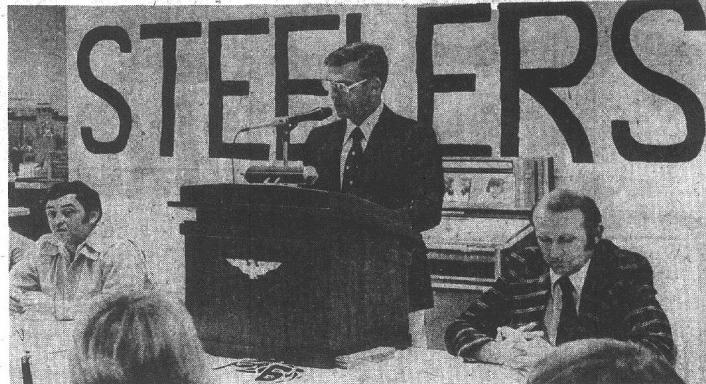

Aiding the Warrior effort also were: Senior Don Meagher, Mike Cather and Russ Preswood. Juniors Randy Preswood, Glen Ahlers, Randy Shaffer, Frank Laub, and Garth Widel, and Sophomores Ken Meagher and James Dunn.

South's golf team, led by Coach Harry Lane, completed its season with a 3-12 mark.

The Warriors were victorious over Collinsville 15-10, Cahokia 17-10 and East St. Louis 17-18.

Its losses were 16-17 to Mascoutah, 185-215 to Belleville East, 164-171 to Alton, 160-179 to Edwardsville, 200-229 to Collinsville, 205-219 to Alton, 199-229 to Belleville West, 213-231 to Cahokia, 175-190 to GCHS North, 156-179 to Althoff, 150-170 to Alton and 154-177 to Edwardsville.

Four players on occasions were low scorers in dual meets in nine-hole matches. They were (with lowest scores in brackets): Senior Jay Fedora, SUCCESSFUL SEASON is reviewed by Coach Robert Kehoe, at the podium, during GCHS North soccer banquet. "Our whole effort was decided by a single goal," said Kehoe, "but we were still winners on the basis of our season performance." Seated at left is Principal Gilbert Walmsley, and at right, Don Deterding, North athletic coordinator, who served as master-of-ceremonies.

Madison High squad to open '75-76 basketball season here Tuesday night

Madison coaches will be the first Quad-City area team to begin the 1975-76 basketball season, opening at home tomorrow in an 8 p.m. contest with Southwest High of St. Louis.

"I have no idea of their players' heights," says Trojans Coach Larry Graham, "but I understand that Southwest has a good athletic tradition established."

"It is like most St. Louis teams, we should face a big and physical ball club."

Tomorrow's contest will be the first-ever confrontation between the two schools in athletic competition.

In announcing his tentative starting five, Graham said

"Junior Keith King, a 5-6 guard, being ruled ineligible to compete at this time."

King, who competed last season with the junior varsity, was succeeded by Graham to add to the team's balance with his ball handling, passing and shooting abilities.

The revised lineup also necessitated shifting some positions.

Senior Ron Jones, at 6-3, has moved into the guard position. He was last season's second leading scorer behind Curtis Bradley.

Ed Garrett, a 6-0 senior, will fill Jones' forward spot.

Graham expects Garrett's defensive playing ability and downcourt driving to help the basket to the Trojan effort.

Either Senior Curtis Bradley, 6-1, who led last season's squad with a 16-point scoring average and who also led in rebound recoveries, or Junior Randall Jones, 6-0, will occupy the center position.

Joe Gulash, a 5-10 senior, will take the other guard position, adding his experience from last season to the team.

A transfer student from California, Senior Danny Rankhead has nailed down the remaining spot as a forward.

The 6-0 athlete will be competing for the first time in any type of organized basketball. But Graham notes that his ability to dribble and execute passes well should help give Madison the punch it needs to produce another winning season.

Following tomorrow's contest, the Trojans will play host to GCHS South at 8 p.m. Friday. Madison defeated the South Warriors 64-56 last season.

forward, Jones, 6-3 guard, and Gulash, 5-10 guard, are Madison's only returning lettermen from last season's squad. Garrett, 6-0 forward, will see MHS varsity action for the first time tomorrow, as will Bankhead, a 6-0 forward who transferred here from California. Junior Randall Jones, 6-3, may start at center tomorrow.

North football banquet Tuesday

GCHS North football fans will honor the 1975 Steeler team in the school's cafeteria beginning at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in a series of giving sports awards and letters banquets.

at Busch Stadium as SIUE won, 2-1. In the sixth inning, the St. Louis team scored at the 50th second.

Twelve-year-old goal Saturday ran his SIUE scoring leadership to 10 points on 10 goals and 10 assists.

The SIUE fans were not particularly worried when Bill Hinckley tied it up at 26-14 on an assist by Alex Rosul. But when Alex's brother, Roman, put the Vikings ahead 2-1 at 40:36, again on an assist by Hinckley, and then held onto that advantage while the Cougars remained the host fast and Coach Bob Gueller began to get worried.

Greg Villa tied it up and, with 10 seconds left, scored the final point still on the clock. Greg Makowski won it with a goal off an assist by Steve Caciatoro.

Former Governor Richard B. Ogilvie today predicted President Ford will withstand a challenge by former California Gov. Ronald Reagan and win both the Illinois primary and Republican nomination for President. Ogilvie said he and his campaign plan to seek the GOP nomination for the White House.

Ogilvie, who heads the President Ford Committee in Illinois, said he is confident the President will pick up a great majority of the votes as well as winning the March 16 Illinois primary.

"The Reagan candidacy is not unexpected," Ogilvie said.

"I know him a long time and I consider him a friend. But President Ford is the man with experience dealing with national and international problems. The President has the confidence of the people. There is no time to change horses."

The Republican national convention is set for Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 15-17.

The President's campaign is picking up support all over Illinois," Ogilvie said. "At present, the major effort is to select and identify Ford delegates who will run in the 24 Congressional districts."

EXPANDED YOUTH PROGRAM is discussed by officers of Coordinated Youth Services which opened a satellite office in Pontoon Beach last week and will open a second such office in Madison on Dec. 1.

CYS office opens at Pontoon

A satellite office of Coordinated Youth Services has opened on the second floor of the Pontoon Beach Village Hall, 3339 Lake Drive, and on Monday, Dec. 1, another Coordinated Youth Services office is scheduled to open in Madison.

The two offices will offer a wide variety of services to the youth in Pontoon Beach and Nameoki Township, and to young people living in the city of Madison.

Both offices will work closely with the juvenile offices of both police departments, will give counseling to aid youths in gaining insight into their personalities and to redirect delinquent behavior into more acceptable forms of behavior, CYS officials said.

Counseling will be done individually, in groups, or with the entire family, and will focus on emotional problems as well as areas such as drug problems, CYS officials said.

The offices will work with the youth, parents and teachers to help them adjust to society and to eliminate juvenile incarceration.

The staff will initiate various activities such as the big brother program, working off court fines and innovative special projects such as street clean-ups, serving as an alternative service to jail, and helping to clean up the community, and at the same time instill experiences in acceptable behavior, it was explained.

The two offices, working with the parent organization, Coordinated Youth Services in Granite City, will offer referrals for alternative schools, tutoring programs, clothing programs, and job development programs such as the job corps.

Assistance also will be given in referrals to other professional programs such as doctors, dentists, psychiatrists, testing specialists and social service agencies.

The two offices will be open from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. Monday through Friday and the staff will be on emergency call during weekends.

The Pontoon Beach staff includes Donald Patrick, counselor; Mrs. Shirley Gaudette, reference specialist, and Miss Kathy Wilson, secretary.

The Madison office staff will be J. Richard Hooks, counselor; Miss Cheryl Thompson, referral specialist; Miss Vanessa Golightly, case worker, and Miss Nancy Johnson, secretarial assistant.

Greg Shineg, assistant director of Coordinated Youth Services in Granite City, will coordinate the services and activities of the new offices.

C. A. "Bud" McMillan is the director of Coordinated Youth Services in Granite City.

Strongarm robbery nets trio $15

The strong-armed robbery of a taxi driver for a total of $15.75 occurred at 10:30 p.m. Thursday afternoon at the corner of the 2000 block of Iowa Street.

Larry Hall, a driver for Dave's Tax Service, reported picking up three passengers at a corner of the 1200 block of Marion Avenue, Madison, at 10:30 p.m. Thursday, and dropping off a passenger already in the cab at a tavern in the 2000 block of Iowa Street.

Hall was about to proceed to his address on Iowa Street by his remaining fares, two men and a woman, and was asked to drive into the alley at the rear of the address so the trio could enter the building through an unlocked back door.

Upon reaching the designated house, Hall said the two men attacked him from the rear, one picking the microphone from the car.

The pair beat the driver and demanded his money. Told the money was in a shirt pocket, one man grabbed the $15.75 and then left on foot, walking north on Marion Avenue.

The woman was described as blonde-haired, wearing heavy makeup, about five feet, three inches tall and weighing about 145 pounds. She was wearing a blue short coat and slacks.

One of the assailants was about 20 years old, five feet, seven inches tall, weighing 145 pounds with long brown hair and wearing blue jeans and a brown corduroy jacket.

The second robber was about 160 pounds, five feet, nine inches tall and between 30 and 35 years old. He had long blond hair and a mustache and was wearing a green t-shirt and a brown corduroy jacket.

'Pajama hour' at GC library

By JEANETTE KAMPEN
Reference Librarian
Granite City Public Library

A special "pajama hour" for preschoolers, kindergartners, and first graders is offered on Thanksgiving evenings at 7 o'clock in the Children's Department.

There will be stories, films, puppets, and a closing activity or story for going to sleep. Children are welcome to come in their pajamas.

During Children's Book Week, Children's Librarian Susan Hardin and children attending "Making Things Yourself" made books of unusual shapes, such as an elephant-shaped book, a rocket book and a half-moon book. All were designed and written by the children.

As an additional service for its patrons, GCPL subscribes to the McNaughton Plan. Through this plan, the library received a basic collection of 200 titles, and each month it receives an additional 20 new books and returns an equal number.

In this way, the McNaughton Plan assists GCPL to meet the demand for best sellers and for other books of current popular interest, both fiction and non-fiction.

According to "Publishers Weekly," E. L. Doctorow's "Ragtime" heads the fiction best seller list, followed by:

"Curtain" by Agatha Christie; "Looking for Mister Goodbar" — Judith Rosner.

Irving Stone: "Shotgun"; James Clavell; and "Humboldt's Gift" — Saul Bellow. These books are available at the GCPL.

The library will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27.

NEW ITEMS. For readers of suspense novels, GCPL has three books of special interest.

In John Macrae's "Pay on the Way," CIA trainee James Hagen investigates three apparently unconnected murders. In this assignment, he probes the complexities of a startling scheme to outwit and profit from.

A gold bar is a wafer-thin, four-ounce gold bar manufactured by the Bank of England. William Harte, a well-known financial writer with a special fondness for gold, says that Roald Bickham, a notorious underworld financier, attempts to heist $20 million of these tiny gold bars in Burton Wohl's "The Ten-Tola Bars."

The detective heroine of Lynn Meyer's "Paperback Thriller" is Sarah Chayse, M.D., who undergoes rigorous training and delicate logic of psychoanalysis in her crime detection.

"Face-Out," a science fiction thriller by Patrick Tilley, is the latest book to have his new novel, "The Mix Died for Your Sins," on the life of the famous cowboy. Greek shipowner whose greatest dream is to establish a dynasty, bearing his name and to see it flourish in the hands of his children. This accident and his own hubris, however, conspire to produce a profoundly ironic conclusion to Kosmas' extraordinary career.

Darryl Ponicsan, author of "The Last Detail" and "Cinematic," has his new novel, "The Mix Died for Your Sins," on the life of the famous cowboy. The novel is a brilliantly colorful evocation of the life and times of Tom Mix, and the story is of a larger-than-life cowboy in a larger-than-life era.

Ask dismissal of annexation suit

Motions to dismiss a suit that challenges the legality of Granite City annexations of Nameoki Township property were filed in Circuit Court Friday on the basis of a Supreme Court ruling in Springfield, Ill., case in which the legal problems were identical to those in the local suit.

The suit was filed by Louis Wielert, supervisor of Nameoki Township, challenging the legality of annexations by Granite City dating back to 1970. The complaint alleged Illinois laws require referendum approval of any proposed annexations by residents of both Nameoki and Granite City townships.

The complaint contended that annexation proceedings by Granite City made the annexed territory part of the city, but did not make it part of Granite City Township. As a result, distribution of taxes to Granite City Township was held up pending a decision in Whitsell's suit.

The Springfield case cited by Fileff and Schooley in their dismissal motions was filed by the Eastern Illinois Improvement Association against the City of Springfield whose boundaries are contiguous to those of Capital Township in Sangamon County.

Youths face multiple charges

Three youths face multiple charges after an off-duty Madison auxiliary police officer said he found them allegedly sniffling glue at 2:50 p.m. Sunday.

Earl Ingram, 18, of 2400 Edison Ave., has been charged with possession of a controlled substance, resisting arrest, illegal use of an intoxicating compound (sniffing glue), contributing to the delinquency of a minor girl by encouraging her to sniff glue, and battery with a repeatable strike. The police who were arrested in the 2000 block of Beckwith Avenue in Madison.

Kimberly Kay Clark, 17, of 909 McCormbridge Ave., has been charged with disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and unlawful use of an intoxicating compound.

Miss Clark and Ingram are to be held at the Madison City jail pending court appearances.

A third youth, Belinda Kay Guldridge, 18, of 1722 Second St., Madison, was released on $25 cash bond and charged with glue sniffing.

The officer reported he saw the three in an auto at Beckwith and McCormbridge and all had plastic bags up to their face. As he asked one of the youths if he was a right to call police.

The three tried to leave, but the officer took the keys. When placed under arrest, Ingram was heard to say he was high in their language and allegedly tried to strike the officers when ordered into the police cars.

Reopening of Lambert Airport's upper level drive is being completed before Thanksgiving. The work began Sept. 3. Bus service will not return to the upper level drive until Dec. 1.

With a new deck installed and structural repairs made, the Clark Bridge connecting the two states will reopen Dec. 14 over Illinois Route 173 and Interstate 270.

Strong support last spring for creation of a separate Southern Illinois University board for the Edwardsville campus crumbled Thursday, killing the proposal for at least two years.

The legislature has attracted 94 affirmative votes in session in June but only 51 in favor could be found last week to try to override Governor Daniel Walker's veto. A single Board of Trustees now governs both the local and Carbondale campuses.

The unofficial House vote was 51-99, with 107 needed. The Senate had voted 39-13 to override Nov. 6.

A veto of a bill creating a state board to discipline doctors. The new law is set to allow the state medical commission to "close an unscrupulous house" by investigating allegations of unethical, illegal or incompetent practice. On the recommendation of a seven-member panel of the State Board of Registration and Education Department director now may suspend, revoke or take other disciplinary action against physicians.

Illinois senators voted Thurday to remove the governor's control over the State Fair.

Newspaper suppliers are predicting price hikes of at least $2 a ton, possibly by March.

Overriden road construction veto was completed Thursday by a 40-18 Illinois Senate vote, indicating Madison County road districts will receive $3,900,000 instead of $3,000,000.

The Madison County Board's Finance Committee voted Friday to restore $21,000 to the per diem (meeting pay) per five-year period of all subsidies to domestic commissioners. The action could affect the commissioners at the Granite City Army Installation and Scott Air Force Base serving retired military personnel, servicemen, totally disabled veterans and dependents.

A U.S. Senate resolution adopted last week would reduce commissary funds by $69 million next year and provide for a five-year period of all subsidies to domestic commissioners. The action could affect the commissioners at the Granite City Army Installation and Scott Air Force Base serving retired military personnel, servicemen, totally disabled veterans and dependents.

at 23rd-Madison

An accident at 23rd Street and Madison Avenue at 3:45 p.m. Thursday, resulted in injuries to one driver and a traffic citation issued to the other.

Mrs. Anna L. Berger, 2801 Adams St., whose auto was westbound on 23rd Street, sustained contusions to the forehead and an injury to the left rib section. She had x-rays taken at St. Elizabeth Hospital and was released after treatment.

Driver of the second vehicle, traveling north on Madison Avenue, was Paul Wagner, 3891 Pontoon Road. He was charged with failure to yield the right of way.

Minnesota Orchestra
due here

The Minnesota Orchestra, directed by Stanislaw Skrowaczewski, will perform at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Dec. 4 at 8:15 p.m. in Meridian Ballroom.

Known as the "orchestra on the road," the Minnesota Orchestra is now in its third season and its 16th with Skrowaczewski, a native of Poland and former conductor of the National Philharmonic of Warsaw.

Skrowaczewski has toured widely with the orchestra, performing at concert halls throughout the country, including the Philharmonic Hall in Los Angeles, New York's Carnegie Hall, the United Nations Assembly Hall and the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C.

In its 1972-73 season, the conductor led the orchestra in a series of concerts at the Palace of Fine Arts in Mexico City under sponsorship of the Mexican government.

Skrowaczewski also has made guest appearances with major orchestras in Europe, Canada, Israel and South America as well as this country.

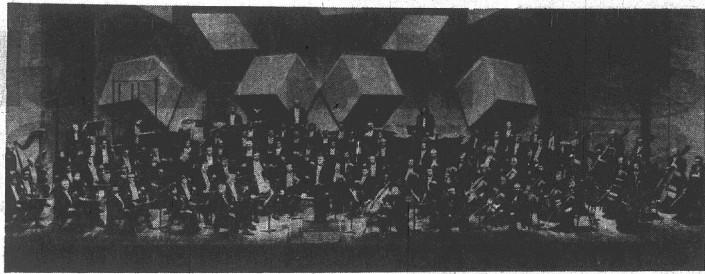

The Minnesota Orchestra will perform Weber's Overture to "Euryanthe," Strauss' "Death and Transfiguration" and Shostakovich's "Symphony No.

6." The program is the third in a series offered by the SIUE Cultural Arts Council.

Tickets for the orchestra and other events are available at the University Center Box Office. General admission is $4.00 and $5.50. SIUE students are eligible for a $1 discount on all tickets for this performance.

Mrs. Pat Pax, 2017 Missouri Ave., reported last week that $9 cash was stolen from her purse while she was a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital. The purse was left in a bedside cabinet when she was undergoing a series of x-rays, Mrs. Pax said.

Rep. Steele to seek re-election

State Rep. Everett G. Steele (R-Glen Carbon) announced today that he will seek re-election to the Illinois House of Representatives.

"I hope to continue to be able to represent the people of the 56th District for another term," Steele said. "I believe there is a need now for fiscal responsibility in state government."

"We must live within our means and state government spending must be kept within a budget boundary."

"I have appreciated the opportunity to work on behalf of the people of our district, as their state representative for the past eleven months. Some of my legislative efforts in the area of protection for unincorporated areas, and in the removal of hidden liens from residential property—have now become law."

Other legislation introduced in the field of investigating the use of state-owned cars, and in upgrading health standards for the protection of the public in eating establishments—I hope to see enough to successful completion."

"During the past year, I have made a special effort to keep close to the views and problems of the people of the 56th District."

"Since May 23, I have visited each community in the district at periodic intervals with my mobile office," Steele said.

Steele believes to be the first legislation in Illinois to maintain a mobile office, which he provides at his own expense.

In addition, he maintains legislative offices at his residence in Glen Carbon and in Alton and Granite City. Constituents can call one of his offices from any area in the district without charge.

Rep. Steele serves as a member of the Appropriations Committee, the House Transportation Committee and the Higher Education Committee. He was recently appointed to the Legislative Council.

Throughout the summer, Steele served as a member of the House Transportation Subcommittee studying Department of Transportation policies, procedures and practices regarding maintenance and improvement of the Illinois highway system.

Steele believes the committee made some positive suggestions which, if implemented, will ensure all areas of the state are treated equally when highways are improved," Steele said.

He resides with his wife, Josephine, and their two sons at Rural Route One, Glen Carbon. He is a former Granite Cityan.

femininity will keep her from getting jobs out in the field. She said it may be difficult for men to have women supervisors, but it is not difficult.

"Men don't talk the same way they normally do whenever I'm around," she said. "They hold their tongues. One of them might be cursing a blue streak and will turn around, see me and apologize."

"I like being out in the job because a girl can get a good chance to travel under a bridge and see the rockers (bridge supports)," Toni said.

"When the bottom was torn out of the Clark Bridge, some of the men would go out on it. I enjoyed it."

John Fritzsche, Equal Employment Opportunity and labor compliance officer for DOB District Eight, affirmed that she is not only competent on the job but also displays concern for others.

"She can walk the steel (bridge superstructure) like an ironworker who has been doing it for years," Fritzsche said.

"She walks all over the bridge trusses that are only 12 inches wide. If she slipped, she would fall 100 feet."

"I wouldn't walk over them," Fritzsche added jokingly.

On an unusually cold day this fall, Toni, with her longjohns on and her face reddened from the wind, admitted she could have chosen an easier and safer life.

"But I really like this job and don't have any gripes," she said. "I get along well with the people I work with, and I learn a lot—an awful lot."

Six in Wilson Park arrested

Mark A. Gates, 17, of 2640 Adams St., was charged with possession with intent to commit armed robbery at 1532 Main St. on Wednesday, Nov. 18.

Five juvenile boys, three 16-year-olds and two 15-year-olds, were charged with unlawful possession of alcohol when police allegedly found several open and unopened bottles of beer.

Gates was released on $100 cash bond and the others were turned over to juvenile authorities for action.

State sets limits on drainage commitments

The East Side Levee and Sanitary District board of trustees agreed during a special meeting Thursday to sign a letter of intent with the state's Division of Water Resources to be one of the local sponsoring resources for the proposed Illinois Drainage program.

The letter of intent, which is not binding, was one of four requested by the Division of Water Resources (DWR) before the program will be included in the state's 1977 fiscal year budget.

Other letters of intent are being sought from Nameoki Township, Granite City and Madison County. In the letters, the boards are to indicate they will participate in the costs of constructing drainage facilities, will help operate and maintain the completed project and help acquire the railroad right-of-way for the project and will pass and enforce flood plain regulations.

Granite City Mayor Paul Schmid said drainage is a local intent. In similar action by Nameoki Township is doubtful. The county did not have an official representative at the meeting and has not been contacted concerning the program.

Louis Whitzell, supervisor of Nameoki Township, said he did not attend either a meeting with the DWR representatives a week ago today or Thursday's meeting because he does not feel "Townships have authority to expend tax funds for drainage projects."

He added, "I did not attend because they would want me to take the responsibility, and we (the township) could not do that."

"The only drainage authority we have here is the East Side Levee District. They are talking now about sinking wells well below the low water table in the Dobrey Slough. We do not have that kind of financing and we have no authority to expend taxes for that," the supervisor concluded.

The requests for the letters of intent came at a Nov. 17 meeting called by the DWR in Granite City.

It was noted at that meeting, "The Division presently contemplates a permanent surface drainage solution to the Dobrey Slough problem. Such a project would be formulated, planned, designed and constructed within fiscal year 1977."

"If necessary, however, latter activities would be completed in fiscal year 1976." John K. Flowe, southern projects manager for DWR noted.

"Failure of local interests to demonstrate their intent to participate in the resulting abandonment of state plans for fiscal year 1977 construction. Very likely there also would be implications for state participation in the Corps (U.S. Army Corps of Engineers) Nameoki Canal project," he warned.

In other action Thursday, the levee district board agreed to give Madison County a parcel of land near the railroad right-of-way in the Pog area for a proposed road from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The land was sold for $1 "and future considerations."

Help in Venice

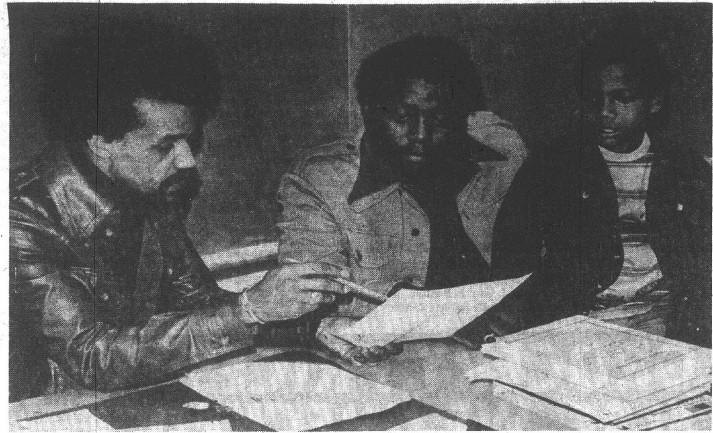

Tommie Kennedy, 18, of Brooklyn, has been charged by Venice police with unlawful possession of a controlled substance. He allegedly had a prescription bottle containing prescription pills, four separate plastic bags believed to contain marijuanna and a medicine bottle also believed to contain marijuanna in his car at 12:30 yesterday.

Venice police allege they observed Kennedy in his car near the Venice schools and saw a person get into the car for a few minutes and then get out.

After the arrest, police made an observation and made the arrest at Seventh Street and Washington Avenue.

When Kennedy was searched he had $200 in cash and a note pad containing names, dates, amounts of cash, and what appeared to be notes on deliveries to individuals in addition to several other notations, it was alleged.

He is being held in the Venice City jail.

Bennett quits as Pontoon Trustee

PAUL BENNETT
Trustee resigns

Trustee Paul Bennett resigned Thursday from the Pontoon Beach Village Board and the Pontoon Beach Board of Auditors. He held a special meeting at 6 p.m. Friday to accept the resignation.

Bennett gave no reason for his resignation in a letter to the board and the Press-Record when contacted Friday afternoon. He had "no comment at this time," on his reasons for resigning.

He is the brother of Chief of Police Robert Bennett Jr. of Pontoon Beach.

Paul Bennett first sought election as a trustee in April 1973 and was successful as a member of the Village Board of Governmental Affairs headed by Village Board President Floyd David Moss.

After a split developed in the board, Bennett was the only member to oppose Moss on several board votes, casting the only negative vote on several issues.

Bennett, 41, operates the Pontoon Fina service station on Pontoon Road and has been a village resident 32 years.

He was not present when the board met Friday night to accept the resignation.

Moss asked his attorney, Paul Guzzardo, if the board had to appoint a replacement or call a special election.

Guzzardo said the board could do nothing but take no action, thus leaving the vacancy open until the next village election in 18 months.

The attorney said the board did not even have a quorum to accept Bennett's resignation, saying it was a quorum if when it was received by the village clerk.

Moss said it would cost nearly $1,000 to hold a special election and he hoped the board should allow the vacancy to exist until April 1977.

Trustee Don Rea, who recently died with Bennett in operating some of Moss' businesses, urged that Moss "should appoint a department store mannequin to fill the vacancy."

Rea then cast a vote against accepting the resignation and left the meeting. The other members voted to accept the resignation.

Curfew abandonment plan appears contrary to state law

A Pontiac Beach establishment offering pinball and other amusement machines and tables has been opened by three village officials at about the same time the municipality reduced license fees that it previously had seen fit to charge all such establishments. Competing facilities paid at a higher level for a long period of time and have not been publicly offered a refund.

Some may wish to allege a conflict of interest. On the other hand, it is obviously more difficult to totally separate regulatory officials and regulated businesses in an area the size of Pontiac Beach than would be the case in New York City.

The situation is one that village residents may want to closely observe. An added problem to watch is the extent to which village board members become obligated through family job patterns and potentially lose their power to speak out on such topics.

Does county really want to hatchet Specialized budget?

Issues related to funding of the local special program center for handicapped persons — who are complex and controversial. Specialized Services is the tenant and the Organization for Advancement of The Handicapped (OATH) is the landlord.

There are differing viewpoints, staunchly held by citizens willing to "get involved."

Articles over a period of weeks have outlined opinions and information from both sides. But more data is emerging, and it will be interesting to see what comes out of the trial and an official governmental investigation have sorted out all the facts.

This being the case, a question that arises is whether the Madison County Board should take the course it appears to be following when it enacts on Wednesday morning the county government budget for the December 1975-November 1976 year. The budget "scalpel" widely described as necessary this year has become a "hatchet" for one agency.

We are talking about $150,000 from the Madison County Mental Health Administrative Board, known as the 708 Board, for the year now ending. It sought about $180,000 for the new year, and was initially cut back to an amount in the $150,000 range.

Then, when the overall county revenue-spending pattern required a general cutback, the figure earmarked for Specialized Services was slashed disproportionately, being lowered all the way to $14,317, in a committee document that has been on tentative display. Meanwhile, $24,401 has been included for the OATH organization although it apparently needs nothing; its rent receipts from Specialized far exceed OATH's financial commitments.

A related national, state and regional subject too broad to be settled this week is whether taxpayers — in law enforcement

Another aspect — late patronage by young people — may deserve immediate reconsideration.

The day the officials' new business opened, Mayor F. D. Moss asked the board to amend the ordinance setting a minimum age of 18 years. It was amended, removing any age factor.

The establishment is staying open nightly until midnight, and Mr. Moss says the state curfew has been found unconstitutional.

The best information we have been able to locate is that the Illinois curfew law has been eased but not discarded. Age 17 was moved into the exempt category for the first time, and those 16 and under must be out of public buildings and off the streets by 11 p.m. on weekdays (midnight Friday and Saturday nights). Parents knowingly permitting a youngster under 17 to violate the curfew also can be charged and fined if convicted, Illinois statutes say.

conducted not for profit, but for the purpose of providing facilities for recognized programs of rehabilitation.

OATH is a landlord, nothing more, from which Specialized Services rents quarters from which some clients in academics and training for trades whenever possible.

My concern is, "Why have the clients been forgotten?"

One person is elected to an office, another to stockholders, board of directors and good, good common sense, decides this is his program and

Madison County Courthouse ramp will end big barrier for handicapped

To the Editor:

I believe it to be appropriate to commend the Madison County Board for providing a ramp entrance to the Courthouse for the physically handicapped.

The soon-to-be-completed entrance will allow handicapped persons to enter the courthouse and to utilize the county offices without having to be carried up and down the steps.

The steps have posed an enormous barrier — hampering handicapped persons from participating in community services in the past.

Handicapped persons will now be able to enter the clerk's office to register to vote, attend County Board meetings, check tax records, apply for passports, obtain birth certificates, apply for scholarships through the county superintendent of schools, etc.

In essence, the handicapped will have the same opportunities as the non-handicapped citizens in Madison County.

In fact, handicapped persons will now be able to be employed at the County Courthouse or even be elected to the County Board, since they will be able to work in a facility unaided.

Truly, the Madison County Board has eliminated a barrier discriminating against the physically impaired.

It is hoped that the physically impaired will take advantage of this rare opportunity to be a better participant in the community.

"Hearts and flowers" to a County Board that cares in Illinois.

Worried parent says clients forgotten

To the Editor:

OATH according to the constitution, charter and bylaws is "to buy, develop and equip real estate to house programs of vocational training, sheltered workshops, work activity centers, recreational facilities, residential facilities and other programs deemed necessary for the total rehabilitation of mentally, emotionally and/or physically handicapped persons."

This organization is to be conducted not for profit, but for the purpose of providing facilities for recognized programs of rehabilitation.

OATH is a landlord, nothing more, from which Specialized Services rents quarters from which some clients in academics and training for trades whenever possible.

My concern is, "Why have the clients been forgotten?"

he will run it. He decides to run it the way he wants to, and Heaven help anyone who does not agree with him—legal or not.

Some seem to forget that OATH is only a landlord—only buy, remodel and keep in repair, nothing to do with what programs Specialized Services will use.

I have a child who in a few years will need the type of program offered by Specialized Services. When and what will the program be?

Is sewer fee enforcement uniform?

To the Editor:

I am writing to you to let you know why I allow sewer fees go unpaid? I, too, think that we need to band together to find out just what is going on when a businessman can owe $4,000 in back sewer fees, and they can't set a date for a court hearing but can get one set up to collect $45.

27TH PLACE HOUSEWIFE

Innocence presumed—Senate leader

To the Editor:

An Alton Telegraph editorial reprinted on this page has drawn from the following response from the Illinois Senate.

I am willing to express my opinion about your article's criticism of Senator Sam Vadalabene in regard to his vote in the selection of vehicles of the Illinois Motor Vehicles Commission.

I am briefly compelled to say that my legislative colleagues, the editorials, the publisher, Sen. Vadalabene for voting to select two legislators who are currently under indictment for alleged—and I emphasize alleged—offenses fitting out of their legislative duties.

The editorial equates indictment with conviction, which is a violation of a basic tenet of American constitutional law.

It apparently would require Senate to accept a 200-year-old constitutional provision that a person is presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

I think it may be of interest to your readers to recall the case of State Senator Bernard Neistein, who was indicted in Sangamon County a few years ago.

At that time, I was requested to remove him from his committee assignments pending the outcome of the trial.

I am proud to say that I resisted this pressure, especially as a jury found Sen. Neistein to be innocent of the charge.

In conclusion, therefore, I want your readers to know that I am proud of Sen. Vadalabene for not ignoring the United States Constitution and for showing by his vote that he, at least, understood that the fathers meant every word they placed in our Constitution.

GUEST EDITORIAL
Against self-defense

(Reprinted from THE INDIANAPOLIS STAR)

Legislation is being proposed in Congress that would sharply restrict the individual's right to use force to defend himself, his family or his property from an intruder or intruders in his home.

The legislation would require that the individual, before using force in self-defense, have proof that the intruder, or intruders, actually intended harm.

Exactly how a resident confronted by one or more invaders of his home could go about getting such proof is not specified. The circumstances surrounding intrusion of a home by stealth or force do not conduct to obtaining psychological profiles or affidavits from the intruders. Even if they did, it is hard to imagine that criminals intent upon robbery, torture, kidnapping, rape or murder would sign statements to be used later as evidence.

The proposed legislation also requires that victims of intended violence exhaust all possibilities of retreat before using deadly force in self-defense. Critics of the proposal say that this could be interpreted as requiring victims to abandon their homes to their assailants.

Under no circumstances whatever, the proposed legislation says, is deadly force to be used in the defense of property. Thus, if the proposal became law, an individual with a weapon capable of stopping the criminals could be forced to stand idle while they stripped his dwelling of all that they chose.

This proposed legislation, which is so heavily weighted in favor of criminals at the expense of their victims, is contained — buried might be a better word — in S-1, the 800-page recodification of the Federal Criminal code. The equivalent House bill is HR-3907.

The proposed restrictions in the use of deadly force in defense of self or belongings would apply only to homes on federal property. However, they draw upon some of the more absurd state court rulings limiting the right of individuals to use deadly force in self-defense, and this has implications.

In one of these, a Massachusetts court issued a decision against a woman who had shot a man who was threatening to kill her. The court ruled she had failed to flee out of a basement door into a nearby woods. The court apparently could not visualize the obvious possibility that the assailant might have followed her.

The worst thing about these proposed limitations on the right of self-defense is that they would, if enacted into law, set a dangerous precedent. Liberals could be expected to push for similar legislation on the state level. And where they can muster a majority, and the public not alert to what is going on, they could succeed.

There have been too many criminal court decisions and there has been too much pro-criminal legislation in our crime-ridden society. These proposed new restrictions on the individual's right of self-defense would, if enacted, stimulate even more crimes of violence and further endanger law-abiding individuals' lives.

They should not be allowed to become law.

Pressure grows for Howlett to run for governor

Comment by Fulton, Ill., Journal-American editor entitled, "A Job Crying Out For A Man."

The burden of the piece was that the job of Secretary of State was crying out for a man of the integrity and strength of Michael J. Howlett.

It is clear here is a job crying out for a man.

The incumbent, Dan Walker, has demonstrated a remarkable ability to turn simple problems into complex ones and to fall flat in the face when attempting to deal with really big problems.

Also, he has been quite careless with the truth, to say the least. Not to mention one week and something entirely different the next.

His vacillation has left the state in a raging turmoil which, however it develops, can only be costly and unproductive of good sound results.

For several weeks, Mike Howlett has been telling his friends that he doesn't want to run for governor.

He's happy and secure where he is, but in ending his work and, understandably, quite pleased with the wide acclaim given his outstanding record of public service.

Millions of dollars already have been saved for the taxpayers by Howlett. More savings are in prospect as his innovative methods move into high gear.

A spectacular example was his replacement of more than 20 former state police and truck drivers and transportation employees by only two much simpler new forms.

There have been scores of other economy and efficiency-promoting steps taken by Howlett.

Mike Howlett should change his mind. He should run for governor.

He is admirably equipped to calm the troubled waters, to present reasonable alternatives to the present quagmire, and to provide the calm and effective leadership this great and prosperous state so greatly needs.

Mike Howlett should change his mind. He should run for governor.

Car pooling by students

A car-pooling program is being initiated in the winter quarter registration at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Edward Soliday, assistant director of admissions and records said students are able to enter a car pool by completing a form during regular registration ending Jan. 5. The data will be programmed by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

Gatikan will provide individual lists for each student containing the names of those people whose commuting habits match his, reports John Madras, a representative of the council.

Lists will then be mailed by the university to students who submitted the forms. The council also has agreed to partially fund the program, Madras added.

In the form and actual participation in a car pool are voluntary.

The program was initiated by Jim Bridwell, assistant professor of science and planning, and is sponsored by the Student Planning Association at SIUE.

DeMolays to confer degrees

DeMolays of James Stuart Chapter held their regular meeting last week, at the Masonic Temple with Stan Meyer, master councilor, in charge. The Tri-State Class at Davenport, Iowa on Nov. 29 was discussed.

Candidates from Missouri, Iowa and Illinois will receive their Initiaty and DeMolay degrees at the Masonic Temple in Davenport. DeMolay members from the three states will confer the degrees with the DeMolay Degree being given by the Dallas Chapter, Dallas, Tex., winners of the Tournament of Champions.

It was decided to start bowling at Bowland Lanes, 3050 Main Road on Saturday mornings at 10. DeMolays interested in regular bowling are to report at that time.

The project will help to support in the child a more positive attitude about himself and his learning environment and in the same manner demonstrate an increase of the language arts' skills, instructors said.

The third graders will write and create plays, poems and short stories with accompanied artwork to be bound into hard-back books for school and community library distribution.

The plays will be performed at other school districts outside of the community. Costumes and scenery will be student-made with direct assistance from teachers, community helpers, parents and SIUE, students.

Within the project, community involvement has been initiated through a volunteer program. These people will be utilized in the classroom as well as outside of it. People of participation.

Any person interested in volunteering some help can contact Dr. E. Ritz, director, Title III, ESEA, at Blair School 876-4818 or 876-2886.

Other teachers involved in the project are Mrs. Beverly Harrison and Gerald Broyles.

GC man shot, is critical

Clarence Hoffman, 33, of 2128 Bryan Ave., was in critical condition this morning in the intensive care unit of St. Elizabeth Hospital after having been shot at the rear of the truck he was driving at 2:25 a.m. today.

A relative said Hoffman returned home from working at the Good Neighbor Tavern, drove his truck to the rear of the tavern and got out. Two gunshots then were heard, according to the relative.

When police arrived at home, they found Hoffman sitting in a chair at the kitchen table, holding his stomach and saying he had been shot.

He was taken by ambulance to the hospital where he related having problems with several persons in the tavern who then followed him to the rear of his truck, he said.

He suffered one bullet wound to the left side of his abdomen which passed through him and exited. Police were unable to locate the spent bullet.

Venice pupils honored on attendance records

Good attendance is being stressed and certificates are being awarded to qualifying students attending Venice Grade and High School for the second six weeks of school this fall.

The program is a part of the Title I Project funded for 1975-76 under the Elementary School Aid Act, according to Mrs. Althea Cross, director.

Students in the kindergarten through sixth grades took their certificates home with their report cards today. The students in grades 7-12 will receive their certificates in the mail. The purpose is to encourage students to come to school regularly.

To qualify for a certificate, a student may miss only one day of school during a six-week period.

According to Mrs. Cross, the Steel demand expected to improve; 2nd GC blast furnace may start up

The "B" blast furnace at Granite City Steel, idle since May 15 when it was shut down for relining and renovation, may be returned to operation in early December, says D. McBride, vice president and general manager, said today.

McBride emphasized there was no final decision as to when the outlook for an early 1976 improvement in business is strong, firm to have a two-furnace operation at Granite City Steel.

However, preliminary work is under way to prepare for starting up the towering furnace about Dec. 1. Blast air from the three big heating stoves is being circulated through the furnaces stack to dry out the new refractory brick lining.

With the unusually low demand for steel in most of 1975, Granite City Steel has been able to maintain its flat rolled steel production with only one blast furnace in production.

Granite City Steel, a division of National Steel Corporation, is the largest steel producer in the St. Louis area. McBride said the company will notify employees when the present uncertainty about the "B" furnace startup is resolved.

Relining the furnace is blown in and resumes full production, it would lead to the recall of about 150 employees.

The gas-cleaning system of the "B" blast furnace was improved during the relining period. Renovation to the furnace included a semi-automatic system for charging raw materials and other materials handling improvements to maintain productivity on a dependable basis.

The blast furnace separates iron from iron ore and produces molten pig iron then refined to produce steel.

The two blast furnaces at Granite City Steel are tall and operate continuously from the time they are blown in until their linings of thick, refractory brick wear thin.

The Star System combines the convenience of total remote control with the automation of a computer and today's most advanced video electronics for unmatched viewing pleasure and tuning ease. NO FINE TUNING...NO PROGRAMMING — EVER! Star is a sophisticated solid-state electronic system that lets you zero in on any channel — UHF or VHF...instantly, directly, silently...without any fine tuning. And, you don't have to search for the channel you want. It's done for you electronically — with computer-like precision and speed. Just press the channel number you want on the hand-held transmitter and Star's solid-state tuner automatically and precisely locks into the channel's broadcasting signal. The number of the channel is even displayed on the screen for a few seconds...then gradually disappears. INSTANT 82-CHANNEL SELECTION WITH TOTAL REMOTE CONTROL FROM YOUR EASY CHAIR! With Star you have selected tuning at random — with instant access to any channel broadcasting in your area. Tune to any UHF channel — like 15 — by merely pressing digits 1 and 5, and any VHF channel; for example 2, by pressing digits 0 and 2. You're there — instantly. On whatever channel you select, you'll see a color picture that stands at the leading edge of the consumer electronic art; a picture that only the most reliable receiver in Magnavox history could produce. Star also offers you the convenience of pushbutton remote control for on/off, volume, mute and channel recall (if you've forgotten which channel you're viewing, just press the recall button...and the channel number will be displayed on the screen again.) PLUS...THE MOST CONVENIENT AT-THE-SET CONTROLS ON ANY TV! If you should misplace the Star transmitter, all pushbutton controls are also located conveniently at the set for easy operation. In addition, Star has the Videomatic electronic eye which automatically adjusts the picture to changing room light...to give you the most eye-pleasing, comfortable viewing in any light. At the touch of the Videomatic button, you also get factory pre-set levels of brightness, contrast, color and tint; however, you (not a service technician) can still adjust the picture to suit your own viewing taste by simply adjusting the front-mounted controls for color, brightness, contrast and tint.

Whatever your budget requirements and whatever your style preference — from Early American to sophisticated Contemporary, or the freer expression of the eclectic — you will find just the right Magnavox Stereo or Television that is completely compatible with your decor and one which will reflect your own taste and individuality. Whichever model you select, you may be assured you'll get the superb styling and quality that have always characterized Magnavox — the industry leader in console cabinet beauty and quality construction — for both stereo and television...but that's just part of the Magnavox furniture story. There's so much more. For example, the authenticity of details that is apparent in every beautifully crafted cabinet. Each design element is painstakingly researched and then meticulously incorporated into an original design crafted of wood, wood products and non-wood material. An example of the creative artistry of Magnavox furniture designers is the Venetian Stereo or Television — with a unique and lovely floral motif framed by graceful scrolls. Delightful adaptations of an Old World chest that are beautiful reproductions of yesteryear — incorporating today's technology of furniture construction and advanced electronics. Faithful reproductions of antiquity are re-created by skilled craftsmen, as is evidenced by the Ogee bracket feet and graceful spindle posts of many Magnavox Early American models. It is this adherence — to authenticity of design and quality construction — that has justifiably earned Magnavox its place of leadership. A leadership which was further emphasized when The Early American Society awarded the Magnavox Spirit of '76 Collection five Certificates of Commendation for having faithfully followed design elements of the 18th and 19th centuries...but you must see all the Magnavox furniture styles to appreciate fully their beauty and design detail. If you want a stereo or a color television in your home that is quite removed from the ordinary, we invite you to visit our store.
